Vocabulary

Unit 1-The Language of Politics

politics	resolute	folly	regime	evasions dissidents	militant	moderates	polity	factions inflexible	dictatorships	Thatcherite	policy	connotation

•		statesman leadership		as the				of "wisd	om,
2) The policies of monetarism, privatization, and self-help promoted by
	-	hatcher we			, -				,
3)					ce or art	of polit	- tical go	overnme	nt.
4) This is what our fellow citizens now expect from Europe's agricultural
,							-
5) Pe	rhaps it i	s more ac	curate to	sav th	at there	is iust (one co	onflict in	the
•	·			•	betwe	-			and
		- ,	_
6)Th	e		in	troduce	ed a geno	ler apa	rtheid	I that to	tallv
•		nen' s iden			-				,
		e of only 1	•	two				have b	een
•	-	•	•		nocracies supplanted, I am glad to say, with democracies. 8) The request for elections to be accompanied by security forces comes fro	-	101 01000			in the	•	sition
_	vernmen	 †.				G. G. 1
•		of thousa	nds of			ā	are oi	ppressed	l or
•		in labour o					,, c o	pp. cosco
'	•	peen conde	•	ecause	of his on	inions :	and he	ecause o	f his
10)	TIC HUS K	een cona	activitie		or ms op			caase o	5
 11)	It would	be sheer	detivitie	.5.	to reduc	e nuhli	ic snei	nding on	the
,	alth servi				to reduc	c pabii	ic spci	iding on	tiic
12)			in its no	wers th	an any na	tional
13)	EU is more limited in its powers than any national Margaret Thatcher was both and
14)	The Prime Minister's speech for the unemployment policies was full
	1110 1 1111	ic iviiiiiste			ic unemp	TOYTHE	τις μοι	icics was	Tull of			and lies			,	•				