

Curriculum Vitae

ANTONIO CAPONE

e-mail: profantoniocapone@gmail.com

Cursum studiorum

- 1982* - Graduation at the Liceo Classico “Palmieri” in Lecce
(Italy)
- 1989* - Medical Degree with full marks (110/110 cum laude),
University of Florence.
- 1995* - Ph.D. in “Clinic e Physiopathology of Musculoskeletal diseases” , University of Florence
- 1999* - Specialist in Orthopaedics and Traumatology, University of Cagliari (Italy).
- 2000* - Associate Professor in Orthopaedic Surgery, University of Cagliari (Italy).
- 2023* - Full Professor in Orthopaedic Surgery, University of Cagliari (Italy).

Stages

1991- 3 months as International Visitor at the Orthopaedic Surgery
Department of Hospital for Special Surgery of New York Chief:
Prof. Edoardo Salvati

1993- 1 week as International Visitor at the Orthopaedic Surgery
Department of Havard Medical School of Boston. Chief: Prof.
Richard Scott

1994 -1 month as International Visitor at the Wichernhaus Clinic of Nurnberg. Chief: Prof. Heinz Wagner

1997- 1 week as International Visitor at the Orthopaedic Surgery
Department of Thomas Jefferson University of Philadelphia
Chief: Prof. Richard Rothman

Courses

- September 1999 - EFORT Travelling Fellowship in Switzerland
April 2001 - International Symposium and Workshop
Reconstructive Surgery of the Pelvis, Graz, Austria

Scientific activity

Author of over 182 publications in national and international journals, and chapters in books, and articles in the field of Orthopaedics and Traumatology with a special interest in the area of hip pathology. In 2018/2020 National President of the A.I.R. (Italian Revision Society)
Author of the book: La chirurgia di revisione nelle artroprotesi d'anca (Ed. Minerva Medica, Turin 2000)

Major scientific interests

- Epidemiology and clinic of hip pathology in adult
- Preoperative planning in primary and revision total hip arthroplasty
- Diagnosis and Treatment of infection in total joint replacement
- Use of bone graft in Traumatology and in Revision surgery
- Treatment of periprosthetic fractures
- Modern therapeutic strategies in the treatment of the osteonecrosis of the hip.
- Fragility fractures

Clinical activity

- expertise in - Orthopaedics
- Traumatology

At present Chief of Orthopaedic Unit, AOU Cagliari, University of Cagliari, Cagliari, Italy (about 3000 surgical operations as first surgeon).

Teaching activities

- | | |
|---------------------------|--|
| 2023 | - Full Professor at University of Cagliari |
| 1994-2000 | - Assistant Professor at University of Cagliari |
| since October 2000 | - Associate Professor at University of Cagliari
Teacher of Orthopaedics and Traumatology at
Medical School of University of Cagliari |
| Since 2004 | Teaching coordinator of the Degree Course in Physiotherapy activated by University of
Cagliari. |
| Since 2011 | Chairman of Residency in Orthopaedic and
Traumatology, University of Cagliari, Italy. |

Grants and Awards

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 1991 | - Grant endowed by Italian Society of Orthopaedics and Traumatology. |
| 1999 | - Award “Ludovico Puxeddu” as one of the best scientific presentation at the Congress “Le Lombalgie” |
| 2005 | - Award “Jacques Duparc”, conferred by European Federation of Orthopaedics and Traumatology, as one of the best poster presented at 7 EFORT Congress,
Lisbon, 2005. |

Cagliari, 31.12.2024

