

20th October 2025, h. 15.00-19.30

Institutional welcome address: Elisabetta Gola
(Head, Department of Pedagogy, Psychology, Philosophy)

Session 1

Chair: Angela Taraborrelli

15.15 Luigi Caranti (University of Catania)
"Five Democratic Pathologies: A Kantian Diagnosis and a quasi-Kantian Cure"

16.00 Hansmichael Hohenegger (Italian Institute of Germanic Studies, Rome)
"Taste and Democracy. Kant's Public Sense as both Transcendental and Historical"

16.45 Coffee break

17.15 Nuria Sánchez Madrid (Complutense University of Madrid)
"Kant's Sexist Theory of Citizenship Reconsidered: A Critical Account in the Context of Some Enlightenment Debates on Women's Duties"

18.00 Alessandro Pinzani (Federal University of Santa Catarina Florianópolis, BR)
"Freedom for Sale: A Kantian Critique of Wage Labour"

21st October 2025, h. 9.45-13.30

Session 2

Chair: Luigi Caranti

9.45 Sorin Baiasu (University of Liverpool)
"Kant, Equal Opportunities and Migration"

10.30 Corinna Mieth (Ruhr University Bochum)
"Kant on Gratitude to Migrants"

11.15 Coffee break

11.45 Angela Taraborrelli (University of Cagliari)
"Kant, Citizenship and Migrants"

12.30 Roberta Picardi (University of Molise)
"Cosmopolitan Right, World Citizenship, and Migration in the Aetas Kantiana"

13.15 Concluding remarks

Organization: Angela Taraborrelli (taraborrelli@unica.it), University of Cagliari.

20-21 October 2025
International Conference

«Kant on Democracy,
Citizenship and Migration»

Department of Pedagogy,
Psychology, Philosophy,
University of Cagliari
Is Mirrionis, 1

Lecture Hall "Motzo"

Conference within the framework of the Prin 2022 PNRR «Democracy and Citizenship: Kantian and Post-kantian Perspectives» P2022PH897 - Cup Master E53D23021350001 Cup - F53D23012080001, funded by the European Union - Next Generation EU Mission 4, 'Education and Research' Component 2, 'From Research to Business' - Investment Line 1.1 'Research Projects of Significant National Interest - Prin'.