

Fundamentals of Systems Engineering course

The course provides qualification required to apply for certification as a Systems Engineering Professional

Qualify as a Systems Engineering Professional (SEP)

University of South-Eastern Norway (USN) is the first university in the Nordic and EEA region approved by the International Council on Systems Engineering (INCOSE) for Academic Equivalence (AcEq).

Enroll in the Fundamentals of Systems Engineering course

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|
| - 7.5 ECTS | - 5 days on campus |
| - Project-based exam | (Kongsberg, Norway) |
| - 7 - 11 September 2026 | - 10 weeks self-study |

Who is the course for?

The course is open to practitioners at all levels, from junior engineers to senior managers. It builds a solid foundation in systems thinking and provides practical methods and tools for managing large and complex projects across industries.

Scan the QR code to reserve your place and get more information.

